DOGS OF IRON

That was a moment when a man and a dog bet their lives.

This story is a unique military dog story that spells strange bonds between people, dogs, and robot dogs with a real touch!

Story By : Hiroshi Tominaga

◆Story◆

The dog trainer, Al, and the military dog, Luke, who resigned from the army due to a bomb injury, were re-employed at a private military company. A veterinarian who took care of them recommended them to the company.

A prototype robot dog BDY-9 was waiting for them. Al and Luke were dispatched to a desert country, still fighting the civil war. Their mission was to “train” BDY-9 so that BDY-9 could fight the battlefield. All BDY-9 could do was “hand” and “sit.” While serving this mission with friends, they were being confused by the robot's unique behavior but started to feel attached to the robot dog. Soon they met Parrill and visited her village in response to her request. However, it was a danger zone where armed forces with snipers and hounds await. In an unaided situation, Al and Luke give orders to BDY-9 to break through the desperation. A soulful story together with a dog in a desert country under civil war!
